What is Your Family Worth

If your family is worth the best you can afford in house and food and clothes, is it not worth the best reading—best for boys and girls, best for men and women—is to be found in The Youth's Companion.

Of stories alone The Companion will print nearly 300 in 1912. With all the rest of the paper thrown in, and counting the glorious long serial stories, they cost the subscriber less than a cent apiece. Moreover, you will look long before you will find stories so varied and interesting—stories of coolness in the face of peril, strange adventures with creatures of the forest and the sea, moving stories of life's obscure heroisms, stories breezy with good-natured humor, quaint and curious character sketches.

Now is the time to subscribe, for you will receive free from the time your $1.75 is received all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1911, containing the opening chapters of Ralph D. Paine's great serial story of the Boxer rebellion, "The Cross and the Dragon." And there is the gift of The Companion Calendar for 1912, "On the New England Coast," lithographed in ten colors and gold. Only $1.75 now for the 52 weekly issues, but on January 1, 1912, the subscription price will be advanced to $2.00.

is where you spend three-fourths of your existence, and naturally you like to have it attractive and comfortable. There is no one thing that will add so much satisfying comfort to the place as an American Lighted System. You will take keen pleasure in operating your own independent gas plant, and in showing the apparatus to your friends and neighbors.

No matter how small your house may be, we can give you a little Lighting System just to fit it, and at so little cost that it will surprise you.

American Lighted Systems are no experiment. They have been on the market for nearly seventeen years, and have the undisputed reputation of being the very best there is. The American Gas Machine Company, with a capital of half a million dollars, stands back of every plant, be it large or small, and guarantees that it will do everything that is claimed for it.

The gas manufactured by these Systems is suitable not only for lighting but for cooking and kitchen purposes as well.

We have just issued a fine new illustrated catalogue, showing in detail all the varied apparatus for these Lighting Systems. We are anxious to send you a copy. Drop us a postal card today. It's FREE. Address
